NEWS FROM ALEXANDRIA.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Aug. 18.-A hot fight is now on between James R. Caton, W. H. May, and J. H. Trimyer in the contest for supremacy in the Democratic primary, to be held on Thursday next for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the State Legislature. All three candidates are working night and day, and the city has been thoroughly canvassed. It is expected that a large vote will be polled. It now seems an assured fact that there will be no other candidates to enter the arena. All three candidates ex-press confidence in the fulfillment of their expectation as to the result. Perhaps Mr. Caton is more sunguine than the other two, as he expresses full confidence in winning. The primary is considered equivalent to an election, and it is now believed that the Republicans will not place a candidate in the field.

Mr. Caton, it is said, is heartily in favor of having "Jim Crow" cars placed on the Washington, Alexandria, and Mount Vernon Electric Railroad. He has stated, it is said, that if such a bill is not brought up he will introduce one. His stand on this issue, it is believed, will he him to secure many votes which he might not

All known Democrats, and all who pledge themseves to support the nominee in the general election will be allowed to vote. The police believe they have secured enough evidence to secure the conviction of the parties implicated. The thieves secured one razor, 60 pennies, 185 checks, $8 in nickels, and a

NAMES FOR THE BIG BRIDGES. Prizes Awarded in Connection With the New York Structures. NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—The American Scenic and Historic Freservation Society has announced the awards of its prizes for the best and next best lists of name proposed for the East River bridges. The four bridges for which names were invited were the Brooklyn Bridge, the bridge known as the New East River Bridge, the bridge to be built between these two, and the Blackwell's Island bride. The competition was suggested by an editorial in the "Tribune" last spring. The trus-tees did not consider any of the E1 lists submitted ideal, and it is probable that their recommendations to the bridge au-thorities will be a selection of the best suggestions from all. They are uanimous, however, in favoring the name Brooklyn Bridge for the present structure. The first prize is given to Miss Mary I. Smithson, of East Orange, N. J., who offered the names Brooklyn, Manhattan, York, and Queens for the four bridges, respectively, and the second to Franklin T.
